DR. PATRICIA WEXLER, DERMATOLOGIST

HAIR:

I'd never say I'm very playful with my makeup, but I'm very bold with my hair. I change the shape a lot. To me, hair is hair—it'll grow back, and I can change it again.

I love Terax Crema Ultra Moisturizing Daily Conditioner and Kérastase Bain Miroir, which I don't think they're making now, but you can go on eBay and spend a fortune on whatever is left. I'll use Serge Norman's Meta Lush Volumizer at the roots because I have thin hair—it's curly but the texture is still really fine. The Shu Uemura Fiber Lift is necessary in my life. I use it two or three times a week. And then when my hair gets very dry looking, NEVO by PRAVANA Hydra Pearls Drops of The Amazon is amazing. It's an oil in a little capsule or a pump bottle, and you put so little on through the ends. Occasionally I'll do Kérastase mask, but that would mean I have 10 extra minutes in my life."
