MANESPIRATION: THREE DAYS OF COACHELLA HAIR WITH DANNY MOON

Festivals aren't just about the music anymore; they are runways for unique styles and place to celebrate art in its many forms (including hair and fashion!).

With three days spent camping, glamping, or in a hotel, getting around to do your hair can be a tedious task, especially with limited accommodations.

Haircolorist Danny Moon teamed up with PRAVANA to give you a 3 day styling and inspiration guide to get you through Coachella weekend. Inspired by mood rings, Danny colored his model, Francis Lola's hair to be multi dimensional, appearing fluid upon style and movement. With PRAVANA ChromaSilk temporary colors, the pastel shades can fade in the sun as the weekend closes, creating a mesh of colors by the end of day three.
